

German-French Association of Orthopaedics and Orthopaedic Surgery

Focus

A friendly exchange between German and French colleagues from the field of orthopaedics and trauma surgery define this association. Scientific issues, common medical engineering developments and European objectives regarding professional policy are tackled. This Association is open to consider other issues.