

Teaching Working Group

Focus

The AG Lehre [Teaching Working Group] has set itself the task of developing recommendation regarding both the structure and content of teaching within the field of Orthopaedics and Trauma Surgery, in order to contribute to creating a universal minimum level for medical teaching in Germany.