

Healthcare, Quality and Safety

The German Society for Orthopaedics and Trauma (DGOU) has initiated various projects in cooperation with its partner organisations to ensure health care for patients. These focus on standardised care and quality standards for the care of severely injured persons, the registration of relevant treatment data, data collection for the treatment of patients after hip and knee endoprothetic as well as certification of medical facilities for joint replacement.